

STEC Privacy Statement

The Saskatchewan Tourism Education Council (STEC) strongly believes in protecting the privacy of our inquirers and customers. In order to ensure your privacy, all information collected from you is treated as confidential. We will not share or sell to any third party information collected from you without your express consent. We pledge to never release your personal information (name, address, telephone number, email address, tourism areas of interest or credit card information) to anyone who is not employed or contracted by STEC to provide a service to you.

Information collected via the Internet, telephone or mail

When you visit the STEC website, call or write we automatically collect information essential for the operation and security of our customer databases. Some of this information (e.g. browser type) does not identify who you are. Information that does identify you is collected for the express purpose of serving your information needs and improving our services to our visitors. STEC uses the information it collects for the following purposes only.

- To provide requested information.
- To inform you of new information and opportunities that relate to human resource development in the tourism sector.
- To determine customer satisfaction and the economic impact that our HR tools have on your human resource practices.
- To respond to inquiries regarding human resource products and services.

Any information we ask you to provide is collected in compliance with Canada's Electronic Documentation and Right to Privacy legislation. Messages sent via the Internet can be intercepted. If you are concerned about sending your personal information via the Internet, please call STEC at 1-800-331-1529.

If you wish to be removed from our database, please contact us.

Cookies

The STEC website uses "cookies." Cookies are small amounts of information that are distributed to web browsers. They will assist you when you return to our site or a specific area of the site. The cookie used here retains session information that allows our website to provide you with a more personalized experience. If you have concerns about this, you can change the settings on your web browser to not accept this information or display warning messages when this is about to occur. Cookies are not retained by our site, but reside on your machine and are marked for removal by your browser after a period of 28 days.

Links to other websites

This site contains links to other tourism-related websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of any sites you may visit after you enter the STEC site.

Questions?

For more information about any of the policies described above or about our website in general, please contact us.